DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

31st October, 2007.

P.C. :

The contention raised before us is that the order dated 21st June, 2007 was passed without providing adequate opportunity to the Petitioners to place certain documents on record. Counsel appearing for the State submits that the State would have no objection if the said order is set aside with liberty to the State to pass a fresh order after furnishing to the Petitioners an opportunity to file requisite documents. In view of the statement made, the order dated 21st June, 2007 is set aside with liberty to the Petitioners to file the requisite documents within two weeks from today and the Respondents as per their statement will pass an order within six weeks thereafter. Parties will abide by their statement and if the Petitioners do not file the requisite documents within two weeks from today, they will not have the benefit of this order and the order which is set aside by this order would automatically stand revived.

The Petition is accordingly disposed of.

CHIEF JUSTICE

DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.
